

Complete and Correct Discussion of the following: (50)

Scope of Theory and Description of Criminal Behavior

- 1.) A definition of crime and deviance that works best with your theory.
- 2.) Discussion of the types of crimes your theory best explains, and types of crimes your theory has most difficulty accounting for.
- 3.) A discussion of what is known about this type of criminal behavior. For example, how common is it, who are the likely offenders, are there interesting trends by place or time?

Theoretical Explanation for Crime

- 1.) Discussion of the assumptions of human nature on which your theory is based.
- 2.) Clear definitions of the concepts important to your theory.
- 3.) An explanation of the major cause(s) of crime by specifying the relationships between concepts.

Implications for Public Policy

- 1.) Based on your theory, the best programs to prevent the crimes you focus on.
- 2.) Types of punishment or treatment programs that would do the most to lower crime.
- 3.) Role of police, courts, and corrections in a society in which crime is explained by your theory. For example, should we make longer prison sentences and add more police to the streets?

Logical argument of paper (15):

Clear Introduction and Conclusion (10)

Grammar Spelling (15)

References (5)

Organization (5)

Comments:

TOTAL _____